A Visit to the City of London Police Headquarters with Lunch at Pizza Express

WEDNESDAY 18th MAY 2016

This event offers a rare and privileged view behind the scenes at the Headquarters of the City of London Police.

We meet at 10am at Wood Street Police Station ready to commence our visit with an introductory talk at 10.15am. During the morning, presentations will be given on counter terrorism (project Griffin) and fraud prevention together with policing and community work on the Barbican Estate. There will be the opportunity to meet the police dogs and their handlers, see police motor cycles and meet the riders, as well as a rare (hopefully!) look inside a police van. We will also tour the stables and make friends with the magnificent horses of the mounted branch.

Specialists from many of the departments operating at Wood Street will be on hand to explain their roles and responsibilities and also answer your questions. Sadly, the museum will not be open due to refurbishment.

IMPORTANT: Please bring Photo Identification with you (Driving Licence, Passport, Freedom Pass etc)

We are particularly delighted that the Club's President, Alderman David Graves plans to join us for this fascinating visit.

After a busy and interesting morning, we take a very short walk to the Pizza Express to enjoy an Italian style lunch in their upstairs dining area - reserved just for us. We will have a pre-ordered meal, selected from 5 main courses and 3 mini desserts with tea or coffee and of course red & white wine, or beer served throughout.
