The Lord Mayor's Show and Lunch in The Guildhall Club

Saturday 11th November 2017

The Lord Mayor's Show is one of the best-known annual events in London as well as one of the longest-established, dating back to the 16th century. The 'Lord Mayor' after whom the Show is named, is the Lord Mayor of the City of London, and this year we look forward to welcoming the 690th Mayor, Alderman Charles Bowman. This spectacular event begins with tea and coffee served in the Guildhall Club Members' Bar at 9.30 a.m. and at 10.00 a.m. we will make our way down to Guildhall Yard to see the Lord Mayor's coach being prepared and harnessed to six shire horses. After waving off the coach you are free to watch the procession, unlike any other in the world: last year there were over 7000 participants, 20 bands and 150 horses. We will then make our way to the Guildhall Club Members' Dining Room for a sumptuous 4-course lunch commencing with welcome drinks at 12.15 p.m.

As we anticipate this event will be over-subscribed and places are limited, Booking Forms must be returned by Royal Mail, accompanied by a cheque. Reservations by telephone or email will not be accepted.
