

2004 Ronald Burden

Ronald Burden who has died recently was a member of our Ward Club since June 1971. He was retired for many years from his profession as a solicitor. As well as his many City interests Ron Burden was a very faithful and active participant in the social activities of the Ward Club - he will be missed greatly by his many friends in Barbican.