

Mr David Albert Charles Ayres

David Ayres was born in 1947 (A vintage Baby Boomer) in Kingsbury North London, moved to Islington and then to Essex, where he still lives with his wife Patricia and close to his son and daughter and their two grandchildren.

He started work in Whitechapel as an apprentice Tailor, then moved to Coleman Street to work for David Rothchild when he qualified. David had his own high class bespoke Tailoring Business and made suits for many well known personalities.

David changed career in the eighties and opened his own Estate Agency which was very successful. He became involved in property developing - something he still enjoys doing.

He is a Fellow of the National Association of Estate Agents, a Fellow of the Institution of Commercial and Business Agents and a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts. David has been a Rotarian for thirty years and has been President; he is a holder of a Paul Harris Fellowship and has been involved with many different charity organizations. David has also been Chairman of Age Concern, a hospital governor in charge of membership and fundraising and is a member of the Huguenot Society.

With homes in Sandgate, Kent and in Cripplegate, David maintains a strong interest in the City and its early history. He is the Conservation Officer representing Cripplegate Ward Club and is also a Liveryman of the Worshipful Company of Upholders and a member of the Guild of Freemen.

Interests include the social history of East London and the City, travel, music, the arts & dancing.
