

Sidney Elizabeth Armstrong Morton

Past Master and Honorary Treasurer, Cripplegate Ward Club

Sidney Morton was born in Westminster and has lived most of her life in London. From 1975 to 2006 she lived in the Barbican in the Ward of Cripplegate. During this time she was involved in local and charitable activities, regularly attended St Giles Church in Cripplegate and was a Liveryman of The Worshipful Company of Pewterers.

She has been a Freeman of the City of London since 1979 and joined the Cripplegate Ward Club in 1983. She was Master in 1998/99 and became Hon Treasurer in 2003. In 2006 Sidney moved to Bath, but has continued as treasurer and regularly attends Ward Club events.

Sidney's career began in the fashion business as an administrator and fashion adviser. Following her marriage, she ran her own catering business in the City for a number of years. From 1983 until leaving London in 2006, she worked as an accountant in the legal profession.

Sidney still enjoys cooking and has retained an interest in wine. She has travelled widely and enjoys photography and drawing around the world. Other interests include walking, keeping fit, reading, art and music.

