

Richard Whitford

Past Master

I graduated in Law from University College London, and Gray's Inn as a Barrister.

I specialise in International Finance Law and have worked in Luxembourg and the Middle East

As an Assistant with The Worshipful company of World Traders I accompanied the party of The Lord Mayor, Sir Robert Finch, to Latvia to celebrate their entry to the EU (2004).

I am currently a Liveryman of Farriers.

My other City duty is as a regimental Member of the Honourable Artillery Company with whom I have been on duty at the Lord Mayors Show and the Service of Remembrance at St. Paul's and the Royal Exchange on numerous occasions, and have Mounted the Royal Guard at Buckingham Palace, St. James's Place and at Windsor Castle.

I am also a Past Master of Fitz Roy Lodge of the Honourable Artillery Company.

I am also Past President of Rotary International and the Treasurer of the Army Benevolent Fund in Guernsey.

